

Story #1: Customer Books an appointment		Priority	High
		Effort	Med
As a	Customer
I want	To book appointments with any employee in any business
So that	I can meet them at the appointment
Acceptance criteria	Criterion 1: Given that the customer is registered and logged in And the business is in the directory And the employee is available at the selected time, And the time and date is in the future, When the customer requests to book an appointment Then make sure the appointment is booked for the customer and employee And employee is not available at the time that the appointment is in Criterion 2: Given that the customer is registered and logged in And the business is in the directory, and the employee is unavailable at the selected time When the customer requests to book an appointment Then ensure the rejection message is displayed And ensure the appointment is not booked

Story # : View Appointment Availability		Priority	High
		Effort	Low
As a	Customer
I want	To View employee availability
So that I can	Know if an employee is available to book an appointment with
Acceptance criteria	Criterion 1: Given that the customer is authenticated And the business exists in the directory When customer tries to view availability of an employee for a given day Then the availability status for each hour should be displayed

Story # : View Current Appointments		Priority	High
		Effort	Low
As a	Customer
I want	To see my current appointments
So that I can	See my current appointments with different employees of a business
Acceptance criteria	Criterion i: Given that the customer is authenticated When customer tries to view my current bookings Then a list of appointments should be displayed
	Criterion ii: Given that the customer is authenticated And the customer has no current bookings When customer tries to view my current bookings Then a message indicating that the customer has no active appointments should be displayed

Story # : Register		Priority	High
		Effort	Med
As a	Customer
I want	Register myself with the application
So that I can	I can book appointments with the employees in several organisations
Acceptance criteria	Criterion i: Given that the customer is not registered, And that the information provided is valid, When customer tries to register, Then the customer entry should be added to the database, And the customer should be notified of the registration Criterion ii: Given that the customer is registered When customer tries to register Then a message indicating that the customer has already been registered should be displayed Criterion ii: Given that the customer is not registered And that the information provided is not valid When customer tries to register Then a message indicating that the customer information is not valid should be displayed

Story # : Login		Priority	High
		Effort	Low
As a	Customer
I want	Login
So that I can	I can book appointments with the employees in several organisations
Acceptance criteria	Criterion i: Given that the customer is registered, And that the information provided is invalid, When customer tries to login, Then an error indicating that the information is wrong should be displayed
	Criterion ii: Given that the customer is registered, And the information provided is valid When customer tries to login Then the customer should be logged in And sent to the main menu
	Criterion ii: Given that the customer is not registered When customer tries to login Then a message indicating that the customer information is not valid should be displayed

Story #5: Business Owner creates employee’s profile details		Priority	High
		Effort	Lrg
As a	Business Owner
I want	to add employees with their working days/time details
So that	Employees are available for customers to book appointments with
Acceptance criteria	Criterion 1: Given that there is network connectivity And business owner login details are entered correctly When the business owner logs in and creates employee’s profile details with valid info Then a database record is created from the data entered
	Criterion 2: Given that the details inputted match a record currently in the database When the system communicates with the database Then system will show the record is already exist

Story #6: Business Owners add employee hours		Priority	High
		Effort	Lrg
As a	Business Owner
I want	Add Employee work hours
So that	Employees are available for customers to book appointments with
Acceptance criteria	Criterion 1: Given that there is network connectivity and business owner is logged in When the business owner adds employee work hours Then the work hour details will be recorded in the database
	Criterion 1: Given that there is network connectivity and business owner is logged in and employee work hours already exists When the business owner adds employee work hours Then the work hour details will be updated in the database		